POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

October 20th 1918

Sir,

At 10 a.m. on the 19th inst about 200 rebel natives of Kiangsu held a meeting at 535 Sien Tuh Li 仙德里 Frenchtown. After much discussion they decided to petition the repatriation Authorities to pay out the funds individually instead of handing the money to the leaders.

A new office has been opened by the amalgamated rebels of all provinces at No.71 Pan Kong Lee 宝康里 Avenue Joffre.

The Chinese Chamber of Commerce has requested that the distribution of repatriation funds be postponed but the request has been rejected by the Authorities concerned. The amalgamated rebels have also decided to send eight representatives to interview General Yang and ask for the postponement of the distribution of the funds.

Two regiments of the 19th Division now stationed at Loongwha ~~who~~ have received instructions to hold themselves in readiness for a transfer to some other place.

All official yamens in the City and suburbs were decorated on the 19th inst in recognition of the birthday of the President.

Your Obedient Servant,

[illegible]

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.
